Under the Indian Ports Act, 1908, responsibility for development of Non-Major Ports vests in the respective State Government, which in the case of the above ports is the Government of Kerala. Ministry of Shipping, Road Transport & Highways (Department of Shipping) does not administer any scheme for Central financial assistance for development of Non-Major Ports.

(d) to (f) There is no Statutory framework under which a State, including the State of Kerala, can be declared a Maritime State. Kerala is a maritime State on account of its coastline.

Proposals for NHs

539. SHRI JANARDHANA POOJARY: Will the Minister of SHIPPING, ROAD TRANSPORT AND HIGHWAYS be pleased to state:

(a) the details of proposal received from different States for upgradation of important link-roads as National Highways, cleared and allocation made and spent for implementation of such proposals during the last five years, year-wise and State-wise;

(b) whether the State Government of Karnataka have sent certain proposals for upgradation of certain important link-roads in the State as NHs; and

(c) if so, the details and status of each proposal in terms of Centre's response thereon?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF SHIPPING, ROAD TRANSPORT AND HIGHWAYS (SHRI K.H. MUNIYAPPA): (a) to (c) Till December 2003, there were about 200 proposals received from various State Governments for declaration of new National Highways. Out of this, 54 proposals totaling to 7,457 kms. of roads in various States were declared as National Highways during February, 2004 as per details shown in Statement-I (See below). After the declaration, 140 proposals totaling approximately 27,000 kms. have been received from the various

State Governments till date. The Government of Karnataka has submitted 28 proposals for declaration of new National Highways as per details in Statement-II (See below). Declaration of more roads as National Highways, at present, is not-a priority for the Government. However, 6 roads, one each in the states of Jammu & Kashmir, Uttar Pradesh, Gujarat, West Bengal and two roads in Tamil Nadu which are important from strategic, heritage/pilgrimage and tourist point of view and three other important link roads, one each in Uttar Pradesh, Haryana and Bihar were declared as National Highways during March/June, 2006.

The allocation for development of National Highways is made State-wise and not works wise. The year-wise and State-wise allocation and expenditure for National Highway Works including the newly declared National Highways executed by the State PWDs during the last five years are given in Statement-III (See below).
